THE VINTNER AGAIN

Captures Jefferson Park's Feature Race From Mom's Boy.

Jockey Swanson Rides Four Winners and Harvey Likewise Does Well With Three.

NEW ORLEANS, La., Dec. 12.—The Greentree Stable's The Vintner added another bracket to his score at this meeting and won the feature race, a $1,000 handicap, at five and a half furlongs, which brought to the post some highly regarded racers. He was forced to do his best, however, to land the victory, Mom's Boy pressing him hard at the end. Bradley's Toney likewise was gaining rapidly. The Vintner displayed a high order of speed for the entire way, but it required Harvey's best skill to keep him in front near the end. There were eight starters in the race with The Vintner always the favored one, but Mom's Boy and Bradley's Toney also attracted considerable support. Missionary failed to break with the others and was left.

The summer-like weather, improved track and better grade of racers starting served as a combination that caused the full strength of racing enthusiasts to journey to the Jefferson Park track.

Jockey Harvey was again in the limelight and piloted three of the winners in the first five races. His big following were enriched considerably as a result.

The racing was spirited all during the afternoon. Some of the finishes were so close that they left a doubt in the mind of some of the spectators as to the correctness of the placing.

BOY O BOY'S LUCKY VICTORY.

The finish of the fourth race, which served as the secondary attraction, brought to the post a good field, and was followed by a demonstration on the part of Modo's backers who thought he had beaten out Boy O Boy. There was no reason for questioning the decision as Boy O Boy had clearly finished in front, but it was a lucky victory he scored and only due to the incompetency of Fields, who was astride Modo. Modo was pounds the best, and with good handling would have won off by himself. The latter was away slowly and Fields rode him wide and weakly throughout. He was on even terms with Boy O Boy in the last sixteenth, but the diminutive Swanson made Fields look amateurish. Pirate Gold was best of the others, and finished in third place.

The colors of Pat Dunne, which a decade ago figured prominently in New Orleans racing and which have not been much in evidence here since Under Fire raced with distinction at the Fair Grounds, scored their first success of the winter season when Talequa, a two-year-old, meeting some of his own age and some older horses, graduated from the maiden ranks, scoring an easy victory over Bad Luck with Firmament in third place. The Dunne youngster raced as if much the best, Harvey had him under restraint in the early running, closely following Bad Luck and when straightened out in the stretch he came away with ease, to win as his rider pleased.

CAMOUFLAGE MUCH BEST.

Jockey W. Harvey scored his second victory with Camouflage. The latter was the favorite and he raced as if much the best. Sunny Girl had retired when John Q. Kelley passed into the lead a quarter of a mile from home, but she came again steadily, and was close to the winner at the finish. Doctor Glenn got up in the last strides to down John Q. Kelley. The latter at one stage of the race looked like the winner, but he tired badly in the final eighth.

The third race, a three-quarter mile sprint affair, furnished a spectacular duel between Frightful and Uncle J., with the former getting the verdict. Maximaneh, after coming from far back, landed in third place. The contending pair had the race virtually between them during the last quarter. New Hope and Good Will were expected to be prominent in the racing, but they were never strong factors.

Uncle J. was claimed at a cost of $1,500 by C. G. Talbutt, represented by Shanghai.

It was jockey Swanson who featured during the afternoon, despite the fact that Harvey had ridden three of the winners in the five preceding races, for when the day closed the little local Swedish youngster, under contract to the local turfman, T. H. Bernhardt, had gone Harvey one better, by riding the last two winners and two preceding ones.

Swanson's riding was brilliant, and while his handling of Boy O Boy was worthy of a veteran, his performance on Waukulla in the closing race was even greater. Waukulla seemed hopelessly out of it at the stretch turn, but the youngster saw an opportunity and also a small opening next the inner rail. He sent his mount along the strip without hesitancy and riding like a demon he passed

GOLDEN ERA OF RACING

Money Distribution for Year 1924 to Exceed $10,000,000

Great Array of Richly Endowed Stake Races---Famous Futurity Heads List With Net Value of $65,730

The golden era of the American turf! Verily, these are the days of wonderful prosperity for those engaged in the fascinating sport of racing. When the complete returns for the year 1924 are known it will be found that the total distribution in stakes and purses by the various racing organizations of North America will have exceeded the $10,000,000 mark, surpassing all previous records. That stupendous sum was made possible by greatly increased racing in various parts of the country and the offering of many richly endowed stake races. In that array of tempting turf prizes there were four stake events each of which had a net value exceeding $50,000, four others of more than $40,000 and all together there were thirty-nine each of which was worth $10,000 or more to the winner.

The famous Futurity, always a barometer of turf values, was the most valuable stake run during 1924. Mother Goose was the winner and her victory added $65,730 to the H. P. Whitney stable earnings for the year. When the gallant Sarazen captured the International Special No. 3 at Latonia in one of the fastest races run anywhere he won for his fair owner, Mrs. W. K. Vanderbilt, the second richest stake event of the year, the stable over which Max Hirsch presides receiving $55,500 because of that victory. The Preakness Stakes, in which Nellie Morse triumphed, was the third most valuable race of the year, the coffers of "Bud" Fisher's stable being enriched to the extent of $54,000 by the filly's success.

The golden anniversary of the Kentucky Derby was celebrated this year and it was only appropriate that the new world's noted race would have a net value commensurate with its great fame. Such was the case and Black Gold was not only inscribed among its illustrious winners but gave Mrs. R. M. Hoots of Oklahoma the honor of being the first woman owner to win the coveted race and added $52,775 to her stable earnings for the year.

The Pimlico Futurity, won by Stimulus and of the net value of $49,200; the Hopeful Stakes, which Master Charlie captured and took down $48,700 as his share; the Coffroth Handicap, worth $43,650, and the Belmont Stakes, in which the Rancocas Stable's Mad Play scored his greatest triumph and won $42,800, were among the other outstanding and most valuable stake features of the year.

Here is a complete list of the richest turf prizes of 1924, together with the winners and other details:

CHILHOWEE PROGRESSING

NEW ORLEANS, La., Dec. 12.—Chilhowee, which was purchased for a big price by S. M. Newman and will race at the Fair Grounds in the name of the Chilhowee Stable, is going along in his galloping in splendid style, according to his trainer, R. Watts. The long rest he has had since his last race at Churchill Downs has given opportunity for his ailing heels to improve and he does not indicate any unwillingness to gallop at exercise. He will start training in earnest next week with a view to his frequent starting during the Fair Grounds meeting and is regarded a certain starter in the $25,000 New Orleans Handicap, barring a mishap.

CAPT. CLOVER'S MISHAP

HAVANA, Cuba, Dec. 12.—Capt. Clover, owned by B. McIntyre, trained by J. W. Overly, fractured a frontal bone when he fell in the fifth race on Thursday. He was unconscious for five minutes. Dr. F. W. Ashe says the racing career of the five-year-old son of General Roberts—Ravaria is at an end. Jockey Seremba was bruised when Capt. Clover went down in the middle of the track, and is unable to explain how the accident happened. The jockey's worst injury was that he bit his tongue in the fall.

CINCINNATI TURFMAN DEAD

CINCINNATI, Ohio, Dec. 12.—John Hamilton, 59 years old, and well known in local turf circles, died yesterday at the St. Elizabeth Hospital, Covington, Ky. Mr. Hamilton suffered a stroke of apoplexy and was removed to the hospital from his apartment in the Hotel Sinton. The deceased was interested in various thoroughbreds, Jack Frost, one of his racers, having annexed a purse last week at the Tijuana course. He also campaigned Stonestreet and Helen Carter, frequent winner at Latonia years ago.

At the time of his death Mr. Hamilton was head of a sugar brokerage firm here. The funeral will be held Saturday at 2 p. m. from the Madison Avenue Episcopal Church. Interment will be in Highland cemetery on the Lexington Pike.

READING ROOM FOR JOCKEYS

NEW ORLEANS, La., Dec. 12.—The new reading room for the jockeys at Jefferson Park was opened Friday, and quite a number of the boys took advantage of this convenience between the races. The room contains a well stocked library.

END OF XALAPA SALE

Eighty Head Bring $256,500 at Second Night of Selling.

Grand Total for Sale $399,900 for 159—Eternal the Top Price at $29,000.

NEW YORK, N. Y., Dec. 12.—Eternal, the eight-year-old son of Sweep and Hazel Burke, by Sempronius, was the bright and particular star of the dispersal sale of Edward F. Simms' thoroughbred holdings. This young stock horse went to J. B. Respess for $29,000.

For the second and last night of selling in Squadron A Armory, there was a large and representative gathering of horsemen and breeders, while the bright gowns of many sportswomen enlivened the scene. It was the night of the sale set apart by E. J. Tranter of the Fasig-Tipton Company as the most attractive and most spectacular and proved a thorough success. Onlookers generally were there to see the selling of the magnificent stock horses, and Eternal was the headliner of them all. The bidding for the son of Sweep was spirited and it finally narrowed to a contest between K. N. Gilpin and J. B. Respess. Mr. Gilpin went to $28,000 in an effort to obtain the horse, and it was the $1,000 raise from Respess that sent the stallion to the Cincinnatian.

Leonardo II., confidently expected to be almost as eagerly sought after as Eternal, brought less than half the amount obtained for the star, when he was knocked down to J. O. Keene on his bid of $12,000. One excellent reason for this low price was the fact that Leonardo II. is utterly unknown as a producer, while Eternal has had two crops already.

INCREASE IN PRICES.

The second night of selling saw a decided increase in values and eighty went under the hammer for a total of $256,500, an average of $3,206. That brought the grand total of the two nights to $399,900 for one hundred and fifty-nine head, making the average for the sale $2,515.

Interest in the sale naturally centered around the stallions, yearlings and horses of racing age. Bidding on these lots was spirited. The five stallions Eternal, Leonardo II., Theo Cook, The Wanderer and Prince Pal found purchasers scattered throughout the country.

Prince Pal went to H. S. Hart's Swing-along Stable for $2,500. James W. Bean of Washington, who had The Wanderer in the stud for two years, took him back for $1,800. Following the sale Mr. Bean refused an advance for the son of Vulcain. Eighteen-year-old Theo Cook went to T. M. Murphy for $1,000.

Willis Sharpe Kilmer, master of Sun Briar Court, Binghampton, N. Y., paid the top price of the evening for a brood mare, when he took the first offering to go under the hammer, Portland Urn, an imported daughter of Son In Law, from Lady Portland. The four-year-old brown brood mare was bred to Negofol, and went to Mr. Kilmer on his bid of $13,000.

C. B. Shafer, owner of the Coldstream Farm, a liberal purchaser during the sale, added Bed of Roses, a seven-year-old daughter of McGee—Parkview, to his purchases, for $10,500, and A. H. Cosden paid $6,500 for Forever, a seven-year-old mare by Ballot—Hazel Burke.

YEARLINGS IN DEMAND.

Eleven yearlings were next put up, and good prices were realized for the lot.

J. B. Respess was a liberal buyer, and obtained three of the choicest offerings, for a total of $19,400.

Sweeping Away, a two-year-old son of Sweep—Lady Eastman, was the best offering of the horses of racing age, and bidding for this prospective Kentucky Derby and Preakness candidate was of spirited nature. J. W. Bean carried the bidding to $9,100, at which figure he took him.

Montfort Jones, with B. B. Jones, owner of the Audley Farm, was a liberal buyer, and added three more to his purchases. John E. Madden, who purchased several mares, was acting for Mr. Jones, and both purchasers added many matrons to Audley Farm. Commander J. K. L. Ross, the Canadian breeder, bought several mares, which will be shipped to his Canadian farm at Vercheres, Quebec, and Kempland Farm, Lexington, Ky.

Among these who attended the sale were Mr. and Mrs. S. D. Riddle, Mrs. F. Ambrose Clark, A. C. Bostwick, Adm. Cary, T. Grayson, J. K. L. Ross, Joseph E. Davis, A. B. Hancock, Mars Cassidy, Frank Moore, Coley Madden, J. O. Keene, W. R. Coe, Mr. and Mrs. P. T. Chinn, Thomas Piatt, W. H. Karrick, Tom Young, J. W. Bean, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Walker, Willis Sharpe Kilmer, Senator P. J. Joyce, J. B. Respess, Maj. T. C. McDowell, Jas. Rowe, Tom Welsh, Tony Wal-

Here and There on the Turf

Mr. Belmont's Successor.
Perpetuate the Silks.
Kentucky and the Sale.
Comparing of Programs.

Men of the turf, and associates of the late August Belmont, for thirty years chairman of the Jockey Club, have paid a last tribute of respect to the memory of the dead sportsman. There was a genuine mourning at the fneral of the man who ruled so wisely and now what remains is to carry on for him and see to it that the turf continues to prosper as it did under his able direction.

His associates of the Jockey Club know better than any others how August Belmont built and they know much of the visions he had for the future. Before long it is imperative that a successor be chosen to the dead chairman and he must of necessity be a man of force and a man who will be willing to devote the time and energy to the duties of the high office that ever characterized the rule of August Belmont.

To the layman the importance of this office may not be thoroughly appreciated, but there are those who know the requirements to properly govern the sport and they have a full appreciation of just what is required.

The death of Mr. Belmont also leaves a vacancy on the board of stewards, the high court of racing, and an election to that body also becomes a necessity. The stewards are now composed of F. K. Sturgis, H. K. Knapp, John E. Cowdin, Joseph Davis, Joseph E. Widener, F. R. Hitchcock, William Woodward and Richard T. Wilson.

Each is a man in whom the horsemen and the racing public have an abiding confidence. Each is a sportsman and each a man well versed in racing and the thoroughbred horse. Each has a vital interest in the turf and all have made possible the accomplishments of August Belmont in his long term of office.

But, added to the qualifications for the office, there must be chosen a man who is willing to make sacrifices of his time for the welfare of the turf. Each is a man of big affairs, as was Mr. Belmont, but there must be time found by the next chairman of the Jockey Club to devote his best efforts to the government of the sport.

All of the qualifications will go for naught unless there is time taken to give of the best for the turf.

It is a high honor for any sportsman to be named chairman of the Jockey Club, but it is an office that demands many sacrifices.

The turf is richly endowed with men of genius capable of governing, but in the selection of the new chairman there must be chosen a man who will make the sacrifices of his time and talents that the office demands.

With the passing of August Belmont, there also devolves upon his sons, Raymond and Morgan Belmont, the task of carrying on the famous old silks on the turf. The late chairman of the Jockey Club followed in the footsteps of his illustrious father when he perpetuated the scarlet with maroon sleeves and black cap. He went further for he made the silks even more famous, and he made the Nursery Stud of infinitely more importance.

It devolves upon the sons to carry on and they will undoubtedly see to it that the glories of the stable and the breeding establishment will not fade. Raymond Belmont, the elder son, is well known to racing and he is a sportsman of parts. He is the natural successor to the racing establishment for, like his father and his grandfather before him, he has ever been an ardent devotee of the turf, as well as being a polo player and a rider of ability.

And August Belmont left a sacred trust for his heirs that has to do with the Nursery Stud. That was the mating of Ordinance with a daughter of Man o' War which is only a yearling at this time. Mr. Belmont, than whom there was no closer student of blood lines, some time ago decided on this mating and it is a sacred trust that his wish be carried out.

The Jefferson Parish Fair Association of New Orleans is to be commended for the card of races that was served up for the entertainment of patrons Thursday. With seven races on the program there were five of them at distances in excess of a mile. To be exact, there were four of a mile and a sixteenth each and one at a mile and a furlong. In contrast the card at Tijuana, comprising eight races, only saw three at as long a distance as a mile. In fact there was one race staged at four and a half furlongs for three-year-olds and upward. Two of the others were at five furlongs, another at five and a half furlongs and still another at six furlongs. Then at Havana, with six races, there was only one at as great a distance as a mile, three at five and a half furlongs and two at six furlongs each.

It is readily seen how Jefferson Park stood out over the two other winter courses Thursday. It matters not just where the horse belongs, in the matter of class there is no excuse for these trivial distances as late in the year as December. They are tests that mean nothing when it comes to what is most to be desired in the thoroughbred horse and they are far from being popular with the racing public.

True, these short dashes have an appeal to some trainers who hope for the best in a wild scramble. It really is a sad commentary on the trainers themselves when they demand such events It requires no skill to fit a horse for a five furlongs dash in December except keeping him well and feeding him. When the distances are stretched out a bit the horse has to be trained intelligently.

If racing secretaries would insist on programs over worth-while distances at all seasons of the year it would make for better sport. It would be an entertainment that would please the public infinitely better, and it would afford better tests and tests that the very essence of the turf demands.

At this time it would be a calamity to disperse the horses that raced so brilliantly last year, and it would be more of a calamity to disperse the horses of the breeding farm that were brought together with such skill and care by the master mind.

Kentucky played the most important part in the bidding for the richly bred thoroughbreds that were auctioned by the Fasig-Tipton Company for E. F. Simms at the Squadron A Armory. This sale was brought to a successful conclusion Thursday night and the high lights naturally were the selling of the young stallions, Eternal and Leonardo II.

Both of the stallions went to Kentucky when Rome Respess paid $29,000 for Eternal and J. O. Keene took Leonardo II. for $12,000. But New York obtained the highest priced matron that went under the hammer when Willis Sharpe Kilmer paid $13,000 for Portland Ura, an imported daughter of Son In Law and Lady Portland, by the St. Simon stallion, Bill of Portland. This filly—she is but four years old—was bred to Negofol last spring and Mr. Kilmer is to be congratulated in adding her to his Sun Briar Court at Binghamton.

There was a decided improvement in the prices that were obtained the second night of the sale and a grand total of $395,900 was obtained for the entire vendue. The average for the sale was $2,491.50, but for the second night of the selling the average reached a figure slightly in excess of $3,117. This may be considered a good average and one to indicate that the thoroughbred market is strong, but it is only a small percentage of the expenditures of Mr. Simms in bringing together his remarkable breeding establishment.

USING THE WORKOUT INDEX

The workout index which accompanies past performances of all major tracks in DAILY RACING FORM will be of use only to those readers who retain a complete file of past workouts. Each day's workouts carry an index number and the latest trial of each horse entered will be found by reference to the workouts of the day designated by the number opposite the horse's name in the workout index. An ordinary stenographer's notebook makes a convenient scrap book for preservation of workouts as they are published.

POST TIME

BY CLEM

We stopped off a night in Chicago on our way west this fall. James J. McInerney, known variously to the lads of racing everywhere as "Big Mac" and "Rough Mac," entertained us at dinner.

During the repast McInerney mentioned the name of an old-time character of racing, a man now living in Chicago.

In the days of Garfield and Washington Parks and Hawthorne this man trained a few horses with considerable success—but for a limited period only. Thereafter he had many chances, but ne'er a winner could he saddle.

In discussing his case we remarked that his short-lived success as a trainer must have been due solely to luck.

"Due to luck and nothing else," said McInerney. "Few men ever trained a thoroughbred that knew less about one than he did. He was simply dumb. He was so dumb he recently went to see that motion picture. 'The Iron Horse,' thinking it was a screen story of the life of Blitzen."

Which remark caused us later to ponder the passing of the so-called "iron horse" from racing.

Yet, if Blitzen, with his fifty-eight starts in one season, was an "iron horse," what then is Little Ed made of—steel and concrete? For that eight-year-old plater ran eighty times in the first ten months of this year, 1924.

Eighty starts in forty-five weeks! Nearly twice a week.

But Blitzen won twenty-three of his fifty-eight starts as a three-year-old, while Little Ed has won but four of his eighty starts this year.

And in that contrast may lay the reason for Blitzen's fame as an iron horse. Everyone knew and loved Blitzen, while Little Ed is known only to his immediate connections and the lads who fear they will not have a ticket on him the day he gets down in front at "box-car figures."

Blitzen was apt to win five days successively. Little Ed is more apt to be saluting the eighth pole five times in as many days.

The world loves a winner and is solicitous for his welfare. Let him accomplish noteworthy things in close succession and he's told he ought to take a rest—he'll kill himself if he doesn't.

But let him fail time after time—then he's told to keep on trying, that it took the British 800 years to capture Jerusalem.

Scores of horses those days were raced oftener and harder than either Blitzen or Logan. But that pair were winners, wherefore they became the "iron horses" of racing's Hall of Fame.

Our commoner horses of today are raced full as frequently as their kind were campaigned in the past.

But our two-year-olds that show the slightest promise of quality are not raced as hard as they were in the '90s.

So fleet a filly as Maid Marian, at two, was racing a mile in the mud in mid-July against aged horses. She beat all aged fields at six furlongs and twice at a mile on a Thursday, Saturday and Monday.

What would be said of Mr. Bradley if he had raced Blue Warbler in that fashion?

It would seem, after all, that the day of the first-class iron-horse has passed. We well may hope so, for the good of the sport.

Twenty Years Ago Today

Chief Turf Events of Dec. 13, 1904

Racing at San Francisco, New Orleans and Oakland.

Trainer John Huggins has entirely recovered his health and will leave New York in a few days for a brief visit to New Orleans.

There is a possibility that jockey Lucien Lyne will ride in England as a free lance next year. He is being urged in letters from London to return with Danny Maher.

E. R. Thomas is lamenting the fact that there is no mile straightaway at Belmont Park. He believes that Hermis can beat Salvator's record of 1:35½, made at Monmouth Park.

With a stable of about forty horses S. W. Streett & Co., in point of numbers, have one of the strongest establishments at New Orleans, but so far the astute doctor has not met with any marked success at the meeting. One of the best-class horses in the lot is Mizzen, which has started several times, but has suffered from soreness in the shoulders that has prevented him from running to his best form. Mizzen was bred by August Belmont and was one of the best two-year-olds of his year, $20,000 being refused for him. He has speed and if he gets into running condition, no doubt he will take the measure of some of the fast ones in the sprinting division. At the opening of the meeting Streett went to New York and brought back a half dozen that will strengthen his establishment materially. Streett's predicament is identical with that of many other owners. He has more horses than he can handle successfully and would like to dispose of at least half of them. Morris Haymen is also in the selling list, as are a number of the eastern owners. The problem will be to find buyers at reasonable prices and the market is certain to be anything but an encouraging one to those who have animals to dispose of.

OCCASIONAL

A $2.00 Occasional goes today. In addition to this we will give you a SPECIAL HORSE which goes today at Tijuana. Just a word about this special horse—the source from which this horse comes is a large organization and they seldom go wrong. Since the opening of Tijuana they have had a winner every single day. It's only through a certain channel that I am able to offer you this grand opportunity. If you were to pay $100, I can safely vouch that it would in no way match up to this special horse. Remit by wire. Remember, this special horse FREE with my Occasional. Don't miss this by any means.

Pay From Your Profits

THE MASTER KEY SYSTEM of playing the races will be mailed you for one week's trial. No charge unless it shows an average profit of at least $10 a day on the $3 scale of play. For particulars mail this ad and a two-cent stamp to

DON'T OVERLOOK THIS ONE

Again to prove that we are right, if you will send your name and address with one dollar to pay the cost of a telegram to YOU, we will wire you the name of a horse that is all SET TO WIN AT NEW ORLEANS, THURSDAY, DEC. 18. We are doing this to convince you that our source of INFORMATION IS REALLY MAKING MONEY for our clients. Name of horse will be wired from this office at 11:00 a. m., Dec. 18. HARVEY AMES

Yesterday's "Harvey Transaction"

WON

This Horse Was Not the Favorite

Yesterday's "Harvey Transaction" and, of course, the only horse advised, WON easily. Special attention was drawn to the fact to pay no attention to past performances, as the horse in question finished out of the money in his last start, but we knew yesterday "WAS THE DAY."

"Harvey Transaction" TODAY

To give the large and small operator a chance to test the value of the newly found connections, Mr. Ames decided to reduce the terms, for today only, to

Twenty-Five Dollars

Payable in advance, by telegraph or in person.

The public is urged once more to pay no attention to past performances as we have proven conclusively that "THERE ARE DAYS AND DAYS."

"Harvey Transaction" means one horse and not a collection. We are materialists, not dreamers. Our ads state "Facts, not Illusions."

NOTICE—PERSONAL—NOTICE

Phenom suggests that all his clients systematize their transactions for their mutual advantage. People who are capable of upholding same are the ones that succeed in the racing game.

THE PHENOM AT NEW ORLEANS

I am on the grounds, personally, at Jefferson Park, supervising a few private specials for some of the "largest operators" in the country. All private specials will be included in my two horse daily service, which is released daily through my New York office. With the assistance of my exclusive connections, I will produce results at the New Orleans meetings that will startle "the turf world."

They call me "The Phenom" on all principal race tracks for the phenomenal results I produced. Owing to my high standing on all principal race tracks it is impossible to give my identity to the racing public, as my reputation would be jeopardized. My connections include information from owners, trainers and jockeys, who will always be my pals.

☞PRIVATE INFORMATION☜

I release the best information obtainable, besides my personal efforts, also sparing no expense, trying my utmost to make each and every turf investment a successful return. If you are in the least skeptical, wire $10, for one day's service and be convinced that my record stands unexcelled.

CONSCRIPT AGAIN TO FORE

Accounts for Another Race at Oriental Park Track.

Apprentice Albiker in Limelight with Two Victories—Annie Lyle Easily the Best.

HAVANA, Cuba, Dec. 12.—Friday afternoon's program at Oriental Park was of the usual off-day variety. The attendance, however, was of goodly proportions, while weather and track conditions could not be improved.

The sixth race, at a mile and seventy yards, was expected to furnish a good contest, but Conscript led all the way by a safe margin, and though he was tiring at the end, managed to score by a length, with Ilena in second place and Whippet taking the short end of the purse.

Young Albiker, the apprentice that Billy Garth sent south with E. Myrat, promises to make good here this winter. The lad landed two of his mounts winners this afternoon. In both races he used good judgment, not racing them into exhaustion in the early stages. Goldmark and Rosamond were his winning mounts. The former was a favorite, while Rosamond was one of the outsiders. Goldmark won her race by five lengths, while Rosamond had a margin of three and a half lengths over her rivals.

W. B. Finnegan, who was associated with K. Spence for several years, saddled the first winner of the meeting, when he sent Ivy to the post in the opening race. Ivy proved rather a handy winner, after following the pacemakers to the stretch turn. At the finish Ivy led the favorite, Crestwood Boy, by a couple of lengths. The latter made most of the pace, then tired at the end.

COLLIE TOKALON IN DRIVE.

Collie Tokalon was forced to stand a long, hard stretch drive to win the third race, a dash of three-quarters, in which she was an even money favorite. Smith nursed her along in the early stages, and when the pacemaker began to tire he started the drive which resulted in his mount getting up in the last seventy yards, to beat the pacemaker, Momentum, by a length and a half.

There was an upset in calculation over the result of the fourth race, when the outsider, Rosamond, romped home in front by a safe margin, with Starmatia second and Rocky, second choice, outlasting Rocking, the favorite, for third place. The last mentioned was expected to triumph here, but a slow start ruined whatever chances he may have had.

The three-quarters of the fifth race found Annie Lyle, the favorite, first home, two lengths in advance of John A. Scott Jr., which just outlasted Spods. The favorite indulged John A. Scott Jr. with the lead until reaching the stretch turn, where she moved to the front and easily drew clear in the last eighth. Spods closed a big gap and would have wrested second place from the early leader in another stride or two.

Among the interesting figures observed at Oriental Park course was Jack McMillan, soldier of fortune, globe trotter, newspaper writer and "shooter" of moving picture films. McMillan is on his way to Honduras. When he arrives there it will make a total of twenty-three countries he has visited.

John McE. Bowman, New York hotel magnate, was in Havana for the opening of the Oriental Park racing season. He is president of the Sevilla Biltmore in this city.

PIONEER IN CUBAN RACING.

Glory of the Seas, J. G. Bickel and Amelia S. are racers here in the string of Andrew Winters, who is a pioneer in Cuban racing. When he read the weather report about snow, sleet and zero conditions up north, he threw away his stetson and put on a straw hat.

If one expects to escape ridicule at the hands of a certain element among the Cubans (not the upper class), he or she from the States will refrain from wearing a Panama. Cubans do not approve of this style of raiment. The reason is that Spaniards coming from the mother country wear this kind of a hat, causing the Cubans to refer to the wearer as a "farmer." This is not the word, but it is a polite interpretation.

If anyone insists on wearing a Panama a good one may be had for $5. For $10 and $15 it is possible to get a fine one.

J. A. Parsons was the first at the current meeting to score four successive victories, with his six-year-old gelding, Attorney.

Jockey Lynch rides Parsons' racers. He is promising. In all of his finishes with Attorney his courage has had as much to do with the victory as did the efforts of the horse.

If Bud Fisher pays a promised visit to Oriental Park he will be met at the main entrance by the living counterparts of his characters, Mutt and Jeff. Lindsey, tall and gaunt, Massam, short and squat, sell programs. All Massam needs is a silk hat.

S. J. Kelly, Louisville turfman, is relying on Cream Puff, Vulcanite and High Roller at the present meeting at Oriental Park.

ANSWERS TO QUERIES

Wm. S., Detroit, Mich. Do not know the present location of former jockey T. Walker.

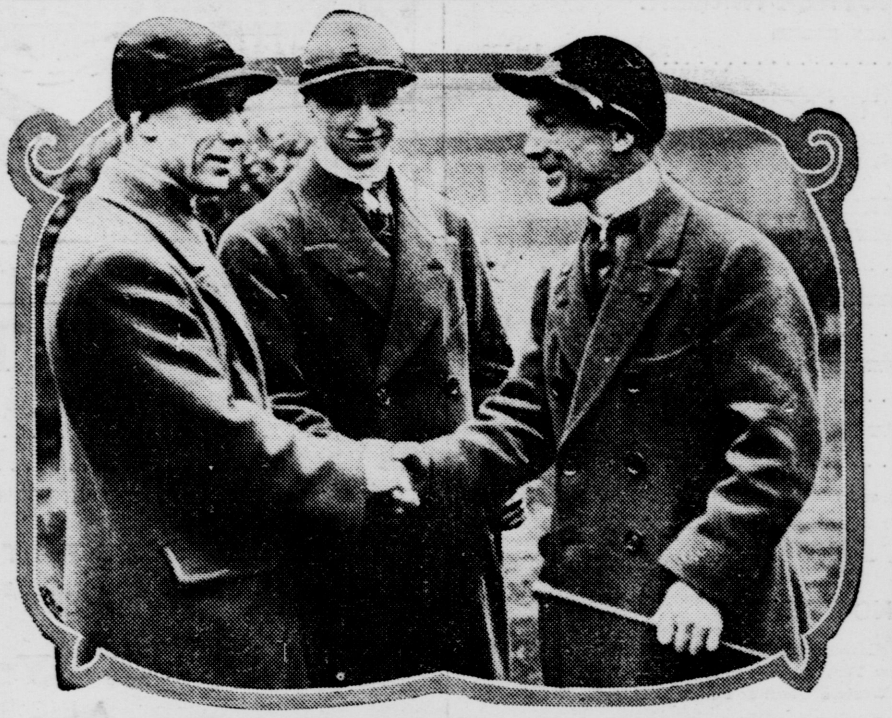
W. J. M., Chicago, Ill. Under the agreement that the two horses should run as an entry, the wager was a draw.

C. L., New York, N. Y. Racing in England and France is over grass tracks and our dirt tracks are practically unknown there. Racing in France was interrupted soon after the World War started.

TO RIDE AS FREE LANCE

NEW YORK, N. Y.,—Dec. 10.—Steeplechase jockey B. Haynes has severed his connection with the Greentree Stable of Mrs. Payne Whitney, in charge of trainer Vincent Powers, and will ride as a free lance next year. Jockey Everett Haynes, who rode Epinard in his International races here and who is under contract to Pierre Wertheimer, will leave for France next month. Haynes is visiting his people at Jamaica for the Christmas holidays.

ENGLAND'S LEADING JOCKEYS



Jockey C. Elliott, left, is pictured above being congratulated by Steven Donoghue on his winning the English jockey championship of 1924. Donoghue led the riding list for several years. In 1923 he and Elliott tied. In the center is jockey R. Jones, who was second this year. Donoghue finished third.
